NEWSLETTER JUNE 2008

Dear Members,

Once again a busy time at the Manifest with the recent one-act plays and Guy Singleton's 'An Evening without Jake Thackray', which was very enjoyable. We are taking part in the One-Act play festival at the Headgate Theatre this month and then July brings a Murder Mystery, auditions for our October production and last but most definitely not least, our AGM! It really is a great opportunity for our members to have their say and is also a great social occasion. We hope to see you there. See you at the theatre!

A MURDER MYSTERY - 'Death By Radio'

Saturday 19th July 2008 at 7.30pm Tickets £5

Directed by John Roberts

It is the Second World War and due to an unexploded bomb at the BBC Studios the live broadcast of an episode of the popular drama series "The Mystery of the Mummy's Curse" is being broadcast from the Manifest Theatre. However, during the live broadcast of the show a murder is committed. Who did it? Why did they do it? How did they do it? With the help of the intrepid Inspector Foot of the Yard it is up to you, the audience, to solve the mystery and reveal the Murderer! Get dressed up in your 1940's outfits (optional), tuck into Victory Sponge and join in the fun - our Murder Mysteries are very popular so book early!

Box Office opens Saturday 5th July 2008 10.30am to 12noon and will then be open Monday and Wednesday evenings 7.30-9pm and Saturday mornings 10.30am to 12 noon.
