SCROOGE!

29th November ~ 3rd December

Matinée Saturday 3rd

Book early to avoid disappointment!

On the 9th September the North Essex Theatre Guild Awards Evening took place at the Princes Theatre in Clacton.

The Manifest, along with many other local drama groups was nominated for awards at this special occasion.

We are thrilled to report that two of the categories went to The Manifest.

Millennium Writers Award

For Best Original Script,

went to Griff Scott for her one act play
"Tagged".

Best Supporting Actress

was won by Jenni Horn for her role of Mother in
"The Railway Children"

Two very good productions which I think you will agree were played with a very professional cast and enjoyed by so many.

Rehearsals are going strong in the run up to our fabulous Christmas Production of Scrooge!

Kerry King directs yet another great musical with our best acting and singing cast and it looks to be another sell out show!

We are pleased to announce that booking opens on the 19th September 2016
You can book your own seats at our website
